

Summer 2010 was very busy and fruitful in my youth ministry! I end the summer and enter the fall refreshed and motivated with many important initiatives on the horizon. I also apologize for not having a letter out sooner :)

Reward After Many Years

A few months ago I sent out a request to my supporters to help pay for a young adult to attend Historymaker. Since then I had also sent out a few urgent prayer requests for this guy. God has been radically changing his life in this short time. He has gone from constant drug use and despair to successfully completing a drug recovery program to acknowledging Christ as his savior and sharing his new hope on the streets and online!

I've walked with this guy through life for the past 8 years, at Station X and just one-on-one. As I've been reaching out to him since he was a homeless youth until now, he's become a dear friend.

He is still in a very vulnerable situation. Please pray for stability and to grow in his knowledge of God.

Edge Youth at Mission Foursquare Church

There is a strong core group of youth in the Edge Youth Ministry that are passionate about their faith. I am working with groups of these students in two high schools as they are starting their own outreach initiatives to their classmates. We meet to pray during the lunch hour and are planning some cool ideas to show God's love around the school.

The LifeChangers Bible Study is also exploding! There are now 18 regular attenders.

Hey Calvin.

Hey

hey so I have something intense to talk about. If your not busy.

sure

Well I figured out 2 days ago my mom does herion← don't know how to spell it. Who cares. =\ But I don't know what to do. She's been doing it for like 5 months... I had no idea.

The following day I took the youth to a youth drug counsellor at Fraser House. We were able to work out a good plan to ensure the youth's safety.

The annual Fall Fundraising Dinner is my most important fundraiser of the year. It's also one of the most heart-warming and entertaining events you could attend all year!

Please let me know if you'd like to come and I will reserve your seat.

I have an email list that is devoted to praying for urgent prayer requests regarding the youth. If you'd like to participate in this, please send me your email address. "The more we pray, the more things change."

A very important role in my job is the Placement Supervisor for two students attending the Lifeteams School of Youth Outreach. This means that I train and mentor these students for 15 hours a week as they work with me in the various programs I run. Meet my students for this year:

Liz Rempel from Mission, BC

Nicky Wilson from Abbotsford
